

Wahroonga Netball Club Winter Season Awards

In 2023 Wahroonga Netball club committee reviewed existing season awards. The committee agreed on the following awards to recognise the clubs existing members as well as our recognise our clubs life members and club history.

Wahroonga Netball Club Jo-Anne Perry Club Member of the Year Award

Recipient is a player who shows strong leadership on and off the court, may coach and/or umpire and contribute to the club in some way, helps other young players, is friendly and willing to take on roles to help the club.

Members nominate and Committee short lists and votes anonymously.

Wahroonga Netball Club Jennifer Maneschi Volunteer of the Year Award

Recipient is a consistent volunteer of the club in any capacity for the current winter season. Could be a committee member, coach, manager in an unpaid position.

Members nominate and Committee short lists and votes anonymously.

Wildcats Spirit Award

Award acknowledges the history of Warrawee Netball Club. Recipient is a current player who displays a positive and inclusive attitude to all, upholds the values of the club, takes on feedback and encourages other players in their team.

Members nominate and Committee short lists and votes anonymously.

Water Street Netball Ruth Havrlant Net Set Go Award

Award acknowledges history of water St netball with one of the original life members from Water St. Recipient is a Net Set Go player from Under 6-9 year displaying excellent skill, commitment, and fair play in netball.

Members nominate and Committee short lists and votes anonymously.

Wahroonga Netball Ken Eberbach Umpire of the Year Award

Wahroonga Netball Junior Umpire of the Year Award

To be decided by the umpiring convenors.

Wahroonga Netball Peter Havrlant Coach of the Year Award

A coach who goes above and beyond for their team and the club.

Members nominate and Committee short lists and votes anonymously.

Wahroonga Netball Team of the Year

Any team in the club who has displayed the club values, sportsmanship, growth and fair play.

Members nominate and Committee short lists and votes anonymously.

Nominations for awards will be open to all registered members for the season via an online form and will open after the final round of the winter season is played. Awards will be presented at the clubs year presentation day.